* REACTIONARY MARKET CAUSES SAG IN PRICES

No Especial Pressure Evident, but Slight Losses Felt in Many Issues.

STEEL AND RAIL STOCKS SOFT

Day's Trading Without Feature, Neither Bull nor Bear Activity Being Shown-Marines Show Continued Weakness at Close.

BY STOXON WALL.

NEW TORK, Nevember 14.—To-day's market was reactionary, without much activity. Prices, save in certain issues, appeared to sag without especial pressure. Steel shares were soft and rails lacked firmness. But there was little pressure for the sale of railroad stocks, few yielded more than fractionally in the final trading.

There were many losses of from 1 to 1.

There were many losses of from 1 to 2.

There were many losses of from 1 to 3.

There were many losses of from 1 to 3.

There were many losses of from 1 to 4.

The day's continuation Facific, railying the forcing with fractional gains. Among the forcing with fractional gains. Among the forcing with fractional fains along the force of the day and closing at yesterday's low for the day, and closing at yesterday show casier than an upward course would have been.

Marine preferred displayed further weakness, closing at its low for the day with a loss of 1 3-4. Chited States Steel common railled but 1-4 point above its day's low, showing a less at the close of 1 5-8. Guif Steel on small trading lost 4 1-2 points, and Midvale Steel lost 1 3-4. Bethlehem B. following an early loss of nearly two points, recovered to yesterday's closing price.

CHICAGO GR.:IN MARKET.

CHICAGO November 14.—Announcements that the government would furnish an increased supply of cars to move new grain had much to do to-day with bringing about ower prices in the corn market. There was an unsettled close, 1½ to 1½ cents down, with December at 1.19½ and May 1.15½. Oats declined & to 7½ cent net. The outcome in provisions ranged from a 2ct-back of 16 crits to a like advance.
